

List of Newspapers for Letter-to-the-Editor (LTE) Submissions

Most papers have maximum word count allowance and a limit on how often you can submit (e.g., once a month). Keep your title short. Include your full name, address, phone number, and email address for verification purposes.

More LTE writing tips: <https://indivisible.org/resource/write-letters-editor-really-get-attention>

Submit your LTE to multiple newspapers for the widest exposure.

Newspapers in SW Washington and NW Oregon in alphabetical order:

- Camas-Washougal Post Record, Camas WA <https://www.camaspostrecord.com/letter-to-the-editor/>
- The Columbian, Vancouver WA (200 word max)
letters@columbian.com
<http://www.columbian.com/lettertotheeditor/>
- The Daily Astorian (250 word max)
http://www.dailyastorian.com/submit_letters
- The Daily News, Longview WA (175 word max)
letters@tdn.com
https://tdn.com/forms/contact/letter_to_the_editor/
- The Enterprise, White Salmon WA
<http://www.whitesalmonenterprise.com/submit/letter-to-the-editor/>
- The Oregonian, Portland OR (250 word max)
letters@oregonian.com (email submissions only)
- Pamplin Media Group, Portland OR (300 word max)
<https://www.emailmeform.com/builder/form/P6F64czlK9qVsdN0r2>
Allows submission to several local papers such as Portland Tribune and Gresham Outlook.
- Portland Press Herald, Portland OR (300 word max)
<https://www.pressherald.com/reader-services/letters-editor/>
- The Reflector, Battle Ground WA (500 word max)
https://www.thereflector.com/site/forms/online_services/letter_editor/